

Umbria Jazz 2016: Ola Onabule, Diana Krall, Ramin Bahrami and Danilo Rea protagonists of 9 July

Umbria Jazz 2016 ph Roberta Gioberti

Umbria Jazz 2016 celebrates a new birthday and does so with a program that, as usual, did not really have anything to envy to any other international festival. From 8 to 17 July in at least seven places (Santa Giuliana, the Morley and Peacock theaters, the National Gallery of Umbria, the basilica of St. Peter, and, for the free tickets Piazza Garibaldi and the Bottega del Vino) will point reference for enthusiasts and insiders. Undisputed stars and new talents avvinceranno the streets of Perugia to fill the hearts of those who have jazz in the heart.

Ola Onabule ph Roberta Gioberti

Specifically we speak of the July 9 the day: on the stage of the Arena Santa Giuliana has performed the Anglo-Nigerian Ola Onabule , whose voice and dense charge has won the public northern European and Scandinavian as well as the heart of the Canadian pianist Diana Krall , fresh from the great success of "Wallflower " , an album that pays tribute to the title song written by Bob Dylan in 1971. of great emotional impact of the event called "round midnight" at the Teatro Morlacchi with two Masters Ramin Bahrami and Danilo Rea who have dedicated to pay homage to the impressive musical legacy of Johann Sebastian Bach.

Ramin Bahrami Roberta ph Gioberti

Ola Onabule ph Roberta Gioberti1140